

The Carlson Law Firm Launches Carlson Cares $500 Scholarship to KISD seniors

KILLEEN, Texas — High school seniors in the Killeen Independent School District who are headed to a university or college in Texas for the 2021-2022 school year are eligible for a $500 academic scholarship from The Carlson Law Firm.

This is the firm's first year offering a scholarship opportunity for two KISD seniors.

"With the rising costs of college and the financial difficulties many students and their families have felt this year, we wanted to find a way to help students reach their goals," Managing Partner Craig Carlson said.

To be eligible for The Carlson Law Firm's Carlson Cares scholarship the applicant must submit a 300-500 word essay about a time their values or beliefs were tested and how they handled the situation. Further eligibility requirements include the following:

- Must be a high school senior for the 2020-2021 school year
- Enrolled in a KISD school
- Must be headed to a Texas university or college for the 2021-2022 school year
- The application must be submitted online through the scholarship form at carlsonattorneys.com/scholarship
- Submit proof of enrollment
- Submit an unofficial transcript

Application submissions will open on April 15 and run through May 14 until 5 p.m. Students can submit their applications on The Carlson Law Firm's website at carlsonattorneys.com/scholarship.
